

Revcard Privacy Policy

Introduction

This Privacy Policy governs the collection, use, and protection of personal data by Revcard, in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

Information Collection

Revcord collects personal information, including names, contact details, and email addresses, from users through its software and through cookies. This information is used for order processing, customer support, and marketing communications.

Use of Information

Personal data collected by Revcard is used for internal purposes only and is not shared with third parties without user consent. Information may be used to improve services, personalize user experiences, and send relevant communications.

Data Security

Revcord implements robust security measures, including encryption, firewalls, and access controls, to safeguard personal data from unauthorized access, disclosure, or alteration. Please see the Revcard EULA, Warranty Statement, and Terms and Conditions.

Data Sharing

Personal data may be shared with third-party service providers for order fulfillment or other business purposes. Revcard ensures that these third parties adhere to data protection standards.

User Rights

Users have the right to access, correct, or delete their personal information held by Revcard. Requests for data access or modification can be made by contacting Revcard's designated privacy officer.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Revcord uses cookies and tracking technologies on its website to enhance user experience and gather analytics data. Users can manage cookie preferences through browser settings.

Compliance with Laws

Revcord is committed to complying with relevant data protection laws, such as GDPR and CCPA, to ensure the lawful processing of personal data.

Contact Information

For inquiries or concerns regarding data privacy, users can contact Revcard's privacy officer at it@revcard.com or by mail at 1250 Wood Branch Park Drive, Houston, Texas 77079

This Privacy Policy is effective as of 04/15/24 and may be updated periodically to reflect changes in data processing practices or legal requirements. Users are encouraged to review this policy regularly for any updates.
